Afternoon Stroll Offers Woodland Adventure

Spend the afternoon together as a family Saturday, June 30, 2007 at Hidden Oaks Nature Center. From 12:30 to 2 p.m. a naturalist will guide you and your family through the 52 acres of Annandale District Park searching for wildlife.

Understanding the importance of wildlife education, Hidden Oaks offers several daily outreach programs to the community. This woodland walk is a relaxing way for residents to incorporate learning more about their wildlife neighbors during an average afternoon walk. The naturalist will help participants look for wildlife and their woodland homes, unearthing the secrets of life in the urban woodlands.

Hidden Oaks Nature Center is located at 7701 Royce Street in Annandale.

Traveling across the streams and terrain of Annandale District Park on this walk is free for the whole family! Reservations are required. For more information, please call 703-941-1065 or visit <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/hiddenoaks/>.
